Job Opening in ASTRI

There are 2 internship openings for the fresh-graduate students. The job description and requirements are stated as below:

Job Responsibilities:

• Design and implementation of system development for advanced display technology;
• Participate in system platform build up;
• Participate in hardware and software implementation.

Requirements:

• Graduate with a first-degree or higher degree in Electronic Engineering, Computer Engineering or Computer Science, from a local university in Hong Kong
• Successfully completed the undergraduate/postgraduate program
• Knowledge of circuit design and PCB layout is preferred
• Knowledge of one or more of the following is/are preferred: embedded systems development, firmware development, device drivers development, software and hardware integration

Interested parties please send your application to Ms Wendy Zhang at wzhang@astri.org.